the judge had refused to approve the accounts of the notorious John I. Davenport, of New York, for $3,000 extra expenses in election affairs. The Helena organ of the administration, in its Washington department, alludes to Judge Durham as one who "had trimmed his sails under the Cleveland administration as a reformer and economist, which is a species of sail-trimming that has commended both him and his asso-

AN ENLARGED "INDEPENDENT." The demands upon the advertising space of the INDEPENDENT have inbeen found necessary to arrange for an enlargement of the paper, which will be made May 1 next, or as soon thereafter as the requisite printing material and paper can be obtained from the east. Thereafter the INDEPENDENT, except on Sundays, will consist of four nine-column pages, instead of four eight-column pages, as at present, the length of the columns being increased proportionately. This will put the INDEPENDENT another notch in advance of its wouldbe competitors, enabling it to further increase its lead over any other daily publication between Portland and St. Paul. The superiority of the INDEPENDENT'S news service is demonstrated daily, and with the increased space which will be available after May I further improvements may be looked for.

The patronage which enables the IN- and with his knowlege of department DEPENDENT to make this enlargement of affairs acquired during the last four its pages is substantial evidence of the years he would be very likely to prove a high esteem in which the journal is held by the people of Helena and of the will not be long out of the public serterritory at large, and is most gratifying | vice. and encouraging to the management, as showing that a really excellent newspaper is appreciated by the people of this great northwest. The Sunday issue of the INDEPENDENT will consist, for the present, of eight seven-column pages, the contents of which, as of all other issues, will be carefully selected and edited.

Nothing so well indicates the character of a city as its newspapers, and if you wish your friends at the east to obtain a correct idea of the importance of Helena as a commercial center you cannot do so more effectually than by sending them the daily Independent for a few months. It is a mirror of the busy city in which it is published.

of mankind. The lode mining industry is increasing day by day and attracting by consequence the attention of capitalists to properly develop and market the productions. The placer mines of Bedford, Indian creek, Crow creek, Diamond and other like districts are manned by skilled workmen throughout and are already making telling returns. Lines of railway are in contemplation out of and into our valley which are required by advancing interests and are as probable of speedy accomplishment as any in the territory. Better facilities for a more safe transit over the river will be one of the crowning boons, and other road auxiliaries will follow. city in which it is published.

MR. SPRINGER'S ADVICE.

Congressman Springer has written a letter to Martin Ryan, of Fargo, chairmencing Tuesday, April 16th, run an extra Marysville at 8:35 a. m. Train No. 5 will leave Marysville at 8:55 a. m. Leave Silver at 9:24 a. m. arrive at Helena at 10 a. m.

Train No. 6 will leave Helena at 3:35 p. m., arrive at Silver 4:17 p. m., arrive at Marysman of the Dakota territorial central committee, suggesting that the committee use its best endeavors to secure a non-partisan constitutional convention. and to that end advises that the republican central committee be invited to a conference, in order that the delegates may be chosen as nearly equally from toth parties as possible. "In any event," Mr. Springer concludes, "I would suggest that our friends nominate their many still and 4 hours at Jay Gould.

Train No. 8 will leave Helena at 5:30 p. m., arrive at Marysville at 5:30 p. m., leave Silver 6 p. m. arrive at Helena at 6:35 p. m. This arrangement will give passengers 9 hours at Marysville and 4 hours at Jay Gould. gest that our friends nominate their very best men, and concentrate all their efforts upon securing their election." Mr. Springer's advice in the last sentence is worthy of all consideration. As for the suggestion that a conference be held between members of the two territorial committees, it is not believed that such a move is necessary in Montana, where the constitutional convention is almost sure to be quite evenly divided, politically, under the operation of the minority-representation clause of the admission act, which was inserted upon motion of Mr. Springer himself. It is for the interest of both parties, however, that the best men available be nominated for delegates, and if that policy is adopted there can be little opportunity for one party to take advantage of the other in the framing of the constitution. which should be as far removed as possible from mere party politics.

These tickets have an extreme limit of six months from date of issuance, and can be used going any time within sixty (60) days from date of sale. Stop-overs allowed at any point desired—either going or returning—within limit of ticket. Excursionists have choice of two routes from Portland—by steamer, or by rail, via the famous Mount Shasta route.

Bear in mind that the Northern Pacific is the only line running through sleeping and dining cars to the Pacific coast.

A. D. Edgar, General Agent. Mr. Springer's letter to Mr. Ryan concludes with the information that he intends visiting Minneapolis the coming summer and that in case he should do so he will probably extend his journey as far as Helena. Should Mr. Springer come this way he will meet with a hearty welcome from those who remem ber the interest he took in securing to Montana the inestimable boon of statehood. Montana owes much to Mr. Springer and Mr. Cox. Huron, Dakota, has secured the latter for a Fourth-of-July oration, and possibly Helena might induce the former to speak here on the same day. It is worth trying.

THE glowing account in the Helena organ of the administration of the success which has attended the efforts of Delegate Dubois, of Idaho, in the role of an agent for office-seekers must have caused a shade of jealousy to creep over the mind of the genial and efficient delegate from Montana—that is, if he is susceptible of any such sensation.
